The CLARITY Act Pillar Report

The Crypto Rules Bill — Researched, Scored, and Personally Committed

Originally written June 5, 2026; scores committed by me on June 12, 2026. Fully re-researched July 8, 13, 18, and 25, 2026, with light daily catch-up checks in between. This version is the July 30 full weekly research refresh — deep primary-source re-verification covering the Jul 25-30 gap, superseding the lighter Jul 29/30 daily touches, which (it turns out) had each partly missed or contradicted what actually happened: one said the war was cooling, the other said Iran had just struck a US base — independent research found both were true on different days, and confirmed the war widened to two new fronts (Iraq, Egypt) neither daily touch caught. On CLARITY specifically, this cycle pulled the Senate's own floor schedule directly: no path to passage before the Aug 7 recess is now flatly confirmed, but real (if unfinished) negotiating progress continued via a reported Tillis-Gallego ethics counteroffer. This version carries re-rated DRAFT scores awaiting my stamp.

The Scores — Committed vs. Drafts

June column committed by me June 12, 2026. Every draft since is shown for full lineage — nothing collapses until I commit a newer set. July 30 draft is this week's full research refresh, superseding the lighter Jul 29/30 daily touches — NOT stamped yet. Signals below run off the July 30 draft.

Draft P (Jul 30, full weekly refresh): 40 / 47 / 58 / 82 / 92 · Weight: 20% (equal) · Impact: 8 (uniform) · Formula: Signal = ((P – 50) ÷ 50) × Quality × Impact. THE THREE INPUTS, IN PLAIN ENGLISH

P — the odds this is good for crypto by then. Near-term cut further this cycle on a fact stronger than any leadership quote: a direct pull of the Senate's own daily floor schedule (dailypress.senate.gov) shows CLARITY was not on the calendar Jul 28 or Jul 29 — that time went to a memorial ceremony for the late Sen. Lindsey Graham, an executive-calendar nominee vote, and a Russia/Iran sanctions bill that passed 86-12. No cloture motion has been filed. That flatly confirms no path to passage before the August 7 recess. But the medium-term case improved on real (if unfinished) progress: Sens. Tillis (R) and Gallego (D) are reported, by CoinDesk and 4+ corroborating outlets, to have struck new common ground on an ethics counteroffer — though the exact text is undisclosed and White House sign-off is explicitly unconfirmed (even CoinDesk hedges "whether they've actually done it is unclear"). A new complication also surfaced and was rejected by both sides Jul 30: a developer/software-liability enforcement-leeway proposal, mocked by the White House and called "not a serious proposal" by the DeFi Education Fund. Separately, SEC Chair Atkins said the SEC can write crypto market-structure rules unilaterally if Congress stalls — a modest reducer of legislative urgency, noted not scored. Long-term still high — even the bears argue "slips past the midterms," not "dies."

Quality — how trustworthy the evidence is. This cycle pulled the Senate's own floor schedule directly rather than relying on leadership quotes, and cross-checked the Tillis-Gallego report against CoinDesk (tier-1) plus three independent secondary outlets. The Alex Thorn/Galaxy Research 50%-to-30% passage-odds cut circulating in press this week was independently confirmed real but mis-dated to Jul 24-25, not new this cycle — so it isn't double-counted here.

Impact — 8 out of 10, the uniform value every pillar now shares in the equal-weight model. This bill writes the rules for the entire market.

The Claim

The thesis as of July 30, 2026, and where I differ from the consensus — full weekly refresh

The crowd: has spent the week bouncing between a fatalistic "it's dead for 2026" read and flickers of real progress. Polymarket's "signed in 2026" contract hit a record low of 27% Jul 29 before recovering to 30% (my own live pull, Jul 30) — down from ~35% a week ago but not the market capitulation some coverage implied. Galaxy Research's Alex Thorn cut his personal 2026-passage estimate from 50% to 30%, calling the calendar "the enemy" — a real, well-corroborated data point, though it dates to Jul 24-25, not this week. What is new this week: the Senate's own floor schedule confirms CLARITY simply wasn't on the calendar Jul 28-29 (a Graham memorial, a nominee vote, and a sanctions bill took the time instead), and a Tillis-Gallego ethics counteroffer is reported to exist, though unconfirmed by either senator's office or the White House.

Me: draft 40% for the next month — clearly below a coin flip, and my lowest 1-month read yet — because the "no floor time before recess" story is no longer an inference from leadership quotes, it's a fact I pulled directly from the Senate's own schedule. But I'm not cutting the 3- and 6-month windows nearly as hard, because for the first time in weeks there's a reported specific negotiating breakthrough (Tillis-Gallego) rather than a vague three-way deadlock — even though it isn't finalized and the White House hasn't confirmed it.

My edge: unchanged since June — the crowd keeps pricing a timing problem like a death problem. The House did its half a year ago (294-134). A new, still-unresolved complication surfaced this week too: a developer/software-liability enforcement-leeway proposal was floated and then rejected by both the White House and the crypto industry's own DeFi Education Fund on Jul 30 — a reminder that even as the headline ethics fight edges toward resolution, new side-disputes keep appearing. I'm treating the Tillis-Gallego report as real movement, not a done deal.

The Facts

As of July 30, 2026 — hard numbers only, sources on the last page. This is a full weekly research refresh covering the Jul 25-30 gap, independently re-verified against primary sources (including a direct pull of the Senate's own daily floor schedule) rather than carried forward from the daily touches.

- ★ ★ PRIMARY-SOURCE CONFIRMATION — CLARITY was not on the Senate floor calendar Jul 28-29. A direct pull of the Senate's own daily floor schedule (dailypress.senate.gov) shows Jul 28's time went to a memorial ceremony for the late Sen. Lindsey Graham plus an executive-calendar nominee vote, and Jul 29 went to the motion to proceed on the Russia/Iran sanctions bill (which passed 86-12). This is a harder, primary-source confirmation of "no floor time" than any leadership quote — and confirms no path to passage before the Aug 7 recess.
- ★ Tillis-Gallego ethics counteroffer reported — real, but not finalized. CoinDesk (tier-1) and 4+ corroborating outlets report Sens. Tillis (R-NC) and Gallego (D-AZ) struck new common ground on an ethics compromise (Jul 29-30). The exact text is undisclosed and White House sign-off is unconfirmed — CoinDesk's own reporting hedges "whether they've actually done it is unclear," and neither senator's office nor the White House responded to comment requests. Treat as real movement, not a completed deal.
- ★ NEW — a second ethics-adjacent fight surfaced and was rejected by both sides. A proposal to give prosecutors enforcement leeway over software-developer liability was floated and then rejected Jul 30 by both the White House (adviser Patrick Witt mocking the comparison) and the crypto industry (DeFi Education Fund's Amanda Tuminelli: "not a constructive or serious proposal"). A fresh friction point, not yet resolved.
- ★ NEW — SEC Chair Atkins says the SEC can write crypto rules unilaterally if Congress stalls. Atkins told CNBC (Jul 29, corroborated by 5+ outlets) the SEC is "ready, willing, and able" to issue crypto market-structure rules on its own, while still calling statute the preferred, "future-proof" path. A modest reducer of legislative urgency — noted, not scored.
- Odds board (sentiment only) — as independently re-verified July 30: Polymarket's "signed in 2026" contract hit a record low of 27% (Jul 29) before recovering to 30% (my own live pull, Jul 30) — down from the ~35% read a week ago. Galaxy Research's Alex Thorn cut his personal 2026-passage estimate from 50% to 30% — confirmed real and well-corroborated, but dated to Jul 24-25, not this week; not double-counted here.
- Vote math — carried forward, unchanged: GOP floor count remains ~53; still only Gallego and Alsobrooks on record as Democratic negotiators, both conditioning votes on enforceable ethics language. Firmly committed Democratic votes: zero.
- Sen. Graham's death and the Senate's memorial calendar continue to consume floor time this week — a genuine, primary-source-confirmed scheduling drag, distinct from any "thinned floor math" inference (which was already corrected in an earlier cycle: his SC seat was refilled within 48 hours, GOP floor count restored to ~53).
- Ethics talks were broken as recently as Jul 22 (seven Senate Democrats formally rejected the GOP's DOJ-enforcement draft that day) but the Tillis-Gallego report suggests movement since — carried forward as the binding constraint, now potentially loosening.
- The June 30 ethics bomb, still the root cause: OGE released Trump's 927-page disclosure on June 30: ~$1.4B of 2025 crypto income — $635M in TRUMP-memecoin royalties, $500M+ WLF-related. Gillibrand: "there is no CLARITY Act without an ethics provision."
- Section 604 / Wyden's developer-protection push — carried forward, corroborated by 9+ independent outlets. No committed Democratic floor vote attached to it yet.
- The stablecoin-yield fight — carried forward, still closed off rather than resolved: Banking Chairman Tim Scott rejected bank lobbyists' request to change yield-related restrictions on the floor; Coinbase's ~$1.35B/yr USDC-rewards structure survives in the text as-is.
- Still true from June, still load-bearing: the House passed H.R. 3633 294-134 on July 17, 2025 (bipartisan); Senate Banking advanced its separate substitute 15-9 on May 14, 2026. House fast-follow plan (companion bill, Rep. Dusty Johnson) unchanged.

The Prize

Illustrative only — not price targets, not advice

Anchor: BTC $64,706 (Bitstamp daily close, July 30, 2026). A GENIUS-sized move (~40–47%) from here ≈ ~$91–95K. A retest of the ~$125K high ≈ +93%. The anchor is real: during the GENIUS Act's passage (Senate committee Mar 13 → signed July 18, 2025) Bitcoin ran from ~$83K to ~$120K (≈ +44%).

Discount both — 2025 had tailwinds 2026 doesn't, and the GENIUS rally itself fully retraced. And note the coil cuts both ways: prediction-market odds have now fallen from the ~74-82% readings earlier in 2026 to a Polymarket low of 27% (Jul 29) before recovering to 30% — a real, multi-sourced repricing, not thin-volume noise this time. The Prize doesn't feed the math — it tells you what the lean is worth acting on.

The Other Side

The strongest honest case this is wrong

- The Tillis-Gallego "breakthrough" isn't confirmed by either side. No text is public, the White House hasn't signed off, and CoinDesk's own reporting hedges on whether the senators have actually reached an agreement. This report is giving real weight (an 8-point 6mo improvement from the Jul 18 low) to something that could evaporate as easily as the Jul 20-22 ethics deal did when seven Democrats rejected it.
- A second unresolved fight just opened up. The developer/software-liability dispute, rejected by both the White House and industry Jul 30, shows that even as one axis of the ethics fight narrows, new disputes keep appearing — a pattern, not a one-off.
- The floor-calendar problem doesn't have an end date either. "No path before Aug 7" is now confirmed, but this report's own history is repeated rounds of missed "imminent" and "targeted" dates — nothing guarantees September is any less crowded (a revived NDAA, appropriations, other priorities).
- Prediction markets are genuinely more bearish than a month ago. A record-low 27% print, even if it partially recovered, is real information — Galaxy Research's own house view dropped from 50% to 30% independent of any single news event, suggesting professional handicappers see this as a genuine coin-toss-or-worse on 2026 passage.
- The SEC's "we'll do it ourselves" signal cuts against urgency. If the White House and industry believe the SEC can deliver workable rules unilaterally, that reduces the political cost of letting CLARITY slip further — a slow bleed on legislative priority, not a dramatic kill.
- The midterms are still the real wall: miss August 7 and September belongs to election politics. Worst case — Congress resets in January and the Senate starts its bill over.

The Triggers

Dated events ahead — some prove the claim right, some prove it wrong. Re-set July 30, 2026.

DATE	EVENT	MEANS
Fired Jul 28-29 — CONFIRMED, primary	Senate's own floor schedule shows CLARITY was not on the calendar (Graham memorial, nominee vote, sanctions bill instead)	Already driving this cycle's 1mo cut to 40 — no path before the Aug 7 recess
Fired Jul 29-30 — reported, unconfirmed	Tillis-Gallego ethics counteroffer — real per CoinDesk + 4 outlets, text undisclosed, WH sign-off not confirmed	If confirmed and signed off, the single biggest unlock this year — watch for a released text
Fired Jul 30 — NEGATIVE	Developer/software-liability enforcement proposal rejected by both the WH and industry	A new friction point; watch whether it re-emerges in a revised form
Fired Jul 29 — noted	SEC Chair Atkins says the SEC can write rules unilaterally if Congress stalls	Reduces urgency modestly; watch for any actual SEC rule proposal, which would be a genuine alternate path
August 7	PENDING — Last Senate session day before recess	Passes with no floor vote (now the base case) = September collides with the midterms — 2027 becomes the base case for signing
September	PENDING — first realistic floor-time window post-recess, contingent on Tillis-Gallego text and WH sign-off landing over the break	A released, WH-blessed ethics text over recess = re-rate 3/6mo up sharply; continued silence = re-rate down
Any time	NOT FIRED — White House formally signs off on a merged text with Democratic buy-in	The single biggest unlock — Democratic votes follow; re-rate everything up

The flip line: no released, WH-confirmed ethics text by the time the Senate returns from the Aug 7 recess = start treating 2026 passage as effectively dead, not just delayed. Keep 1-year and 3-year Bull either way — a bill with 294 House votes, a reported bipartisan ethics counteroffer, and only one unresolved variable is delayed, not dead.

My Decision

🕒 UPDATED DRAFT — JULY 30, 2026 (FULL WEEKLY REFRESH) · AWAITING MY STAMP

Draft P: 40 / 47 / 58 / 82 / 92 · Weight: 20% (equal) · Impact: 8 (uniform)

This week's full research refresh pulled the Senate's own daily floor schedule directly and confirmed CLARITY simply wasn't on the calendar Jul 28-29 — a harder fact than any leadership quote, and the reason 1-month cuts further to 40. But 3- and 6-month don't fall as far as that alone would suggest, because for the first time in weeks there's a reported specific negotiating breakthrough (the Tillis-Gallego ethics counteroffer) rather than a vague deadlock — even though it's unconfirmed by either senator's office or the White House. A new developer-liability side-dispute (rejected by both sides Jul 30) and the SEC's "we can do it ourselves" signal are noted as modest additional drags. 1-year and 3-year hold — nothing this cycle changes the structural, multi-year read.

The June committed scores (55 / 60 / 65 / 85 / 92, committed June 12, 2026) remain the last human-stamped values.

Override any P and re-stamp — the master blend recomputes.

CoinPicks · July 30, 2026 · Research & Education · Not Financial Advice

- ★ Primary-source confirmation: CLARITY was not on the Senate's own floor calendar Jul 28-29. A direct pull of dailypress.senate.gov shows a Graham memorial, a nominee vote, and the Russia/Iran sanctions bill (passed 86-12) took the time instead — a harder confirmation of "no floor time" than any leadership quote.
- ★ Tillis-Gallego ethics counteroffer reported, unconfirmed: CoinDesk + 4 outlets report the senators struck new common ground; text undisclosed, White House sign-off not confirmed by either office.
- ★ New friction point: a developer/software-liability enforcement proposal was floated and rejected by both the White House and the DeFi Education Fund (Jul 30).
- ★ New, noted not scored: SEC Chair Atkins says the SEC can write crypto rules unilaterally if Congress stalls (Jul 29, 5+ outlets).
- Polymarket "signed in 2026" hit a record low of 27% (Jul 29) before recovering to 30% (my own live pull, Jul 30). The Alex Thorn/Galaxy Research 50%→30% estimate cut circulating this week is confirmed real but dated Jul 24-25, not new — not double-counted.
- Score re-rates (Jul 25 full refresh → Jul 29 light touch → Jul 30 full refresh): 1-month 42 → 46 → 40 · 3-month 50 → 54 → 47 · 6-month 61 → 62 → 58 · 1-year 83 → 83 → 82 · 3-year 92 → 92 → 92 — the floor-schedule confirmation drives the front-end cut; the Tillis-Gallego report keeps 3/6mo from cutting as hard. Draft only — awaiting my stamp.
