The CLARITY Act Pillar Report

The Crypto Rules Bill — Researched, Scored, and Personally Committed

Originally written June 5, 2026; scores committed by me on June 12, 2026. Fully re-researched July 8, 13, 18, 25, and 30, 2026; the Aug 5 and Aug 6 catch-ups (both held flat) were reviewed and stamped committed. This version (August 7) re-rates down at 1mo/3mo — Senate Majority Leader Thune did not file cloture before the recess and told The Block on the record (Aug 6, ~11pm ET) the vote is delayed until the Senate returns from its month-long recess in mid-September. The score moves to 32/44/58/82/92. This version carries scores that have been auto-stamped committed by Alex (delegated daily auto-stamp authority).

The Scores — Committed vs. Drafts

June column committed by me June 12, 2026. Every draft since is shown for full lineage — nothing collapses until I commit a newer set. Aug 6 (held flat) committed and stamped by Alex. Aug 7 is today's light daily touch — 1mo/3mo re-rated down on a confirmed cloture delay.

WINDOW	JUN	...	7/31	8/1	8/2	8/3	8/4	8/5	8/6	8/7	QUAL.	IMP.	SIGNAL	MY CALL

THE THREE INPUTS, IN PLAIN ENGLISH

P — the odds this is good for crypto by then. Moves down at 1mo/3mo: Senate Majority Leader Thune did not file cloture before the recess and told The Block on the record (Aug 6, ~11pm ET) the CLARITY Act vote is delayed until the Senate returns from its month-long recess in mid-September ("We're getting that queued up first thing when we come back") — corroborated by CoinGape, CryptoRank, and CryptoTimes reporting the same delay. This is the exact scenario this report's own Aug 6 trigger table flagged as a re-rate-down trigger, now confirmed rather than merely anticipated. Advancing the bill still requires 60 votes, meaning roughly seven Democrats crossing over — unchanged. Long-term still high — even the bears argue "slips past the midterms," not "dies."

Quality — how trustworthy the evidence is. Today's move rests on a direct, on-record quote from the Senate Majority Leader to a named reporter, corroborated by three independent outlets reporting the same delay — well above the sufficiency bar for a re-rate. Quality itself is unchanged this cycle per house rules.

Impact — 8 out of 10, the uniform value every pillar now shares in the equal-weight model. This bill writes the rules for the entire market.

The Claim

The thesis as of August 7, 2026, and where I differ from the consensus — the deadline came and went

The crowd: watched the same clock I was — and the clock ran out. Thune never filed cloture before the recess. He told The Block on the record Aug 6 night that the vote is delayed until the Senate returns from its month-long recess in mid-September, prioritized "first thing when we come back." CoinGape, CryptoRank, and CryptoTimes all reported the same delay. Coverage that had framed Aug 3-7 as the last realistic pre-recess window was right — and the window closed with nothing filed.

Me: cutting to 32% for the next month — my lowest read yet — because the thing the trigger table said would move the score down further (the window closing with nothing filed) is now confirmed, not just probable. 3-month trims more modestly to 44%, since a September return still lands inside that window, but a "month-long" recess into mid-September leaves less runway before the midterm calendar starts crowding the floor.

My edge: unchanged since June — the crowd keeps pricing a timing problem like a death problem. The House did its half a year ago (294-134). Thune's own words — "queued up first thing when we come back" — describe a delay, not an abandonment. I'm not cutting 6/12/36-month because a bill delayed to September with the majority leader still promising to prioritize it is not the same as a bill that's dead.

The Facts

As of August 7, 2026 — hard numbers only, sources on the last page. New Aug 7 facts appear first; the Jul 30-Aug 6 facts below are carried forward unchanged (still load-bearing).

- ★ ★ Aug 7 — CONFIRMED: cloture was never filed, and the vote is delayed to September. Senate Majority Leader Thune told The Block on the record (Aug 6, ~11pm ET) the CLARITY Act vote will wait until the Senate returns from its month-long recess in mid-September: "We're getting that queued up first thing when we come back." Corroborated by CoinGape, CryptoRank, and CryptoTimes reporting the same delay.
- ★ Aug 7 — a separate Aug 5 report corroborates the same underlying gridlock: Senate Democrats remained unified against cloture over unresolved ethics-enforcement, illicit-finance, and stablecoin-yield disputes, per Yahoo Finance/Politico-sourced reporting — consistent with, not new beyond, the delay confirmation above.
- Aug 6 — still no cloture motion filed as of that check, per CoinGape, CryptoSlate, CoinDesk, Cryptonews, Yahoo Finance, and Bitcoin Foundation — now resolved by Thune's Aug 6 night confirmation above.
- Checked daily Jul 31 - Aug 6: no cloture motion filed. Multiple outlets (CoinGape's live-updates series, KuCoin, crypto.news, CryptoSlate, Bitcoin Foundation) consistently reported the bill absent from the Senate's cloture calendar throughout the run-up to recess.
- Aug 3, 2026 — Senate's floor plan (5:30pm roll-call vote) covered only cloture on the H.R. 6500 CR vehicle, with no floor time allocated to CLARITY (Yahoo Finance, Bitcoin.com, KuCoin, CryptoSlate, Spendnode).
- Advancing the bill still requires roughly seven Democratic crossover votes to reach the 60-vote cloture threshold — unchanged from the standing vote-count picture.
- No new Tillis-Gallego ethics-text release or White House sign-off found. The negotiating track from late July has neither advanced nor collapsed on the record; Thune's framing suggests it remains the thing to watch over recess.

Carried forward from the July 30 full refresh (still load-bearing):

- ★ ★ PRIMARY-SOURCE CONFIRMATION — CLARITY was not on the Senate floor calendar Jul 28-29. A direct pull of the Senate's own daily floor schedule (dailypress.senate.gov) shows Jul 28's time went to a memorial ceremony for the late Sen. Lindsey Graham plus an executive-calendar nominee vote, and Jul 29 went to the motion to proceed on the Russia/Iran sanctions bill (which passed 86-12). This is a harder, primary-source confirmation of "no floor time" than any leadership quote — and confirms no path to passage before the Aug 7 recess.
- ★ Tillis-Gallego ethics counteroffer reported — real, but not finalized. CoinDesk (tier-1) and 4+ corroborating outlets report Sens. Tillis (R-NC) and Gallego (D-AZ) struck new common ground on an ethics compromise (Jul 29-30). The exact text is undisclosed and White House sign-off is unconfirmed — CoinDesk's own reporting hedges "whether they've actually done it is unclear," and neither senator's office nor the White House responded to comment requests. Treat as real movement, not a completed deal.
- ★ NEW — a second ethics-adjacent fight surfaced and was rejected by both sides. A proposal to give prosecutors enforcement leeway over software-developer liability was floated and then rejected Jul 30 by both the White House (adviser Patrick Witt mocking the comparison) and the crypto industry (DeFi Education Fund's Amanda Tuminelli: "not a constructive or serious proposal"). A fresh friction point, not yet resolved.
- ★ NEW — SEC Chair Atkins says the SEC can write crypto rules unilaterally if Congress stalls. Atkins told CNBC (Jul 29, corroborated by 5+ outlets) the SEC is "ready, willing, and able" to issue crypto market-structure rules on its own, while still calling statute the preferred, "future-proof" path. A modest reducer of legislative urgency — noted, not scored.

- Odds board (sentiment only) — as independently re-verified July 30: Polymarket's "signed in 2026" contract hit a record low of 27% (Jul 29) before recovering to 30% (my own live pull, Jul 30) — down from the ~35% read a week ago. Galaxy Research's Alex Thorn cut his personal 2026-passage estimate from 50% to 30% — confirmed real and well-corroborated, but dated to Jul 24-25, not this week; not double-counted here.
- Vote math — carried forward, unchanged: GOP floor count remains ~53; still only Gallego and Alsobrooks on record as Democratic negotiators, both conditioning votes on enforceable ethics language. Firmly committed Democratic votes: zero.
- Sen. Graham's death and the Senate's memorial calendar continue to consume floor time this week — a genuine, primary-source-confirmed scheduling drag, distinct from any "thinned floor math" inference (which was already corrected in an earlier cycle: his SC seat was refilled within 48 hours, GOP floor count restored to ~53).
- Ethics talks were broken as recently as Jul 22 (seven Senate Democrats formally rejected the GOP's DOJ-enforcement draft that day) but the Tillis-Gallego report suggests movement since — carried forward as the binding constraint, now potentially loosening.
- The June 30 ethics bomb, still the root cause: OGE released Trump's 927-page disclosure on June 30: ~$1.4B of 2025 crypto income — $635M in TRUMP-memecoin royalties, $500M+ WLFI-related. Gillibrand: "there is no CLARITY Act without an ethics provision."
- Section 604 / Wyden's developer-protection push — carried forward, corroborated by 9+ independent outlets. No committed Democratic floor vote attached to it yet.
- The stablecoin-yield fight — carried forward, still closed off rather than resolved: Banking Chairman Tim Scott rejected bank lobbyists' request to change yield-related restrictions on the floor; Coinbase's ~$1.35B/yr USDC-rewards structure survives in the text as-is.
- Still true from June, still load-bearing: the House passed H.R. 3633 294-134 on July 17, 2025 (bipartisan); Senate Banking advanced its separate substitute 15-9 on May 14, 2026. House fast-follow plan (companion bill, Rep. Dusty Johnson) unchanged.

The Prize

Illustrative only — not price targets, not advice

Anchor: BTC $65,000.00 (Bitstamp daily close, August 7, 2026). A GENIUS-sized move (~40–47%) from here ≈ ~$91–96K. A retest of the ~$125K high ≈ +92%. The anchor is real: during the GENIUS Act's passage (Senate committee Mar 13 → signed July 18, 2025) Bitcoin ran from ~$83K to ~$120K (≈+44%).

Discount both — 2025 had tailwinds 2026 doesn't, and the GENIUS rally itself fully retraced. And note the coil cuts both ways: prediction-market odds have settled in a narrow band (~30-31%) since the Jul 29 record-low print of 27% — a real repricing from the ~74-82% readings earlier in 2026. Today's confirmed delay to September is exactly the kind of news that band has been pricing in; it does not itself reopen the coil. The Prize doesn't feed the math — it tells you what the lean is worth acting on.

The Other Side

The strongest honest case this is wrong

- The Tillis-Gallego "breakthrough" isn't confirmed by either side. No text is public, the White House hasn't signed off, and CoinDesk's own reporting hedges on whether the senators have actually reached an agreement. This report is giving real weight (an 8-point 6mo improvement from the Jul 18 low) to something that could evaporate as easily as the Jul 20-22 ethics deal did when seven Democrats rejected it.
- A second unresolved fight just opened up. The developer/software-liability dispute, rejected by both the White House and industry Jul 30, shows that even as one axis of the ethics fight narrows, new disputes keep appearing — a pattern, not a one-off.
- The floor-calendar problem doesn't have an end date either. "No path before recess" is now fully confirmed by Thune himself, but this report's own history is repeated rounds of missed "imminent" and "targeted" dates — nothing guarantees September is any less crowded (a revived NDAA, appropriations, other priorities), and September is also when midterm-campaign politics starts eating floor time.

- Prediction markets are genuinely more bearish than a month ago. A record-low 27% print, even if it partially recovered, is real information — Galaxy Research's own house view dropped from 50% to 30% independent of any single news event, suggesting professional handicappers see this as a genuine coin-toss-or-worse on 2026 passage.
- The SEC's "we'll do it ourselves" signal cuts against urgency. If the White House and industry believe the SEC can deliver workable rules unilaterally, that reduces the political cost of letting CLARITY slip further — a slow bleed on legislative priority, not a dramatic kill.
- The midterms are still the real wall: miss August 7 and September belongs to election politics. Worst case — Congress resets in January and the Senate starts its bill over.

The Triggers

Dated events ahead — some prove the claim right, some prove it wrong. Re-set August 7, 2026.

DATE	EVENT	MEANS
Fired Aug 6 — CONFIRMED, negative	Cloture never filed; Thune confirms the vote is delayed to September (told The Block on the record, ~11pm ET Aug 6)	Drove today's 1mo/3mo re-rate down — already IN this draft
Mid-September	PENDING — Senate returns from its month-long recess; Thune says CLARITY is "queued up first thing when we come back"	A vote actually happening = re-rate 3mo up; continued slippage = re-rate down further, 2027 base case strengthens
Unresolved since Jul 30	Tillis-Gallego ethics counteroffer — real per CoinDesk + 4 outlets as of Jul 29-30, text still undisclosed, WH sign-off still not confirmed	If confirmed and signed off over recess, the single biggest unlock this year — watch for a released text
Ongoing	Three named Democratic blocking issues: ethics enforcement, illicit-finance/DeFi provisions, stablecoin yield (Yahoo Finance, Aug 5)	Resolution on all three before September = real chance of a floor vote; continued silence = base case slips toward 2027
Any time	NOT FIRED — White House formally signs off on a merged text with Democratic buy-in	The single biggest unlock — Democratic votes follow; re-rate everything up

The flip line: no released, WH-confirmed ethics text by the time the Senate returns in mid-September = start treating 2026 passage as effectively dead, not just delayed. Keep 1-year and 3-year Bull either way — a bill with 294 House votes, a reported bipartisan ethics counteroffer, and a Majority Leader publicly committing to prioritize it on return is delayed, not dead.

My Decision

✓ COMMITTED — AUGUST 7, 2026 (LIGHT DAILY TOUCH) · AUTO-STAMPED BY ALEX

Committed P: 32 / 44 / 58 / 82 / 92 · Weight: 20% (equal) · Impact: 8 (uniform)

Cloture never got filed, and Thune confirmed on the record the vote is delayed until the Senate returns from recess in mid-September. That's a real, well-corroborated trigger firing — 1-month drops to 32 (my lowest read yet), 3-month trims to 44. 1-year and 3-year hold — nothing today changes the structural, multi-year read; a delay to September with the Majority Leader still promising to prioritize it is not the same as a dead bill.

The June committed scores (55 / 60 / 65 / 85 / 92, committed June 12, 2026) and the Aug 6 committed scores (38 / 47 / 58 / 82 / 92) remain the prior human-stamped values.

Override any P and re-stamp — the master blend recomputes.

What Changed Since Last Check

Light daily touch, August 7, 2026, on the Aug 6 committed set.

- ★ Confirmed: cloture never filed, vote delayed to September. Senate Majority Leader Thune told The Block on the record (Aug 6, ~11pm ET) the CLARITY Act vote is delayed until the Senate returns from its month-long recess in mid-September — corroborated by CoinGape, CryptoRank, and CryptoTimes.
- A separate Aug 5 report (Yahoo Finance) confirms Senate Democrats remained unified against cloture over ethics-enforcement, illicit-finance, and stablecoin-yield disputes — consistent with, not new beyond, the delay above.
- No new Tillis-Gallego ethics-text release or White House sign-off found — the negotiating track is now the thing to watch over the recess.
- Score re-rates (Aug 6 committed → Aug 7): 1-month 38 → 32 · 3-month 47 → 44 · 6-month 58 → 58 (held) · 1-year 82 → 82 (held) · 3-year 92 → 92 (held) — the first real move since Jul 31, on confirmed news rather than continued silence. Auto-stamped committed by Alex.
