The CLARITY Act Pillar Report

The Crypto Rules Bill — Researched, Scored, and Personally Committed

Originally written June 5, 2026; scores committed by me on June 12, 2026. Fully re-researched July 8, 13, 18, 25, and 30, 2026, and again as a full weekly refresh on August 8, 2026. Drafts were written August 17, 18, and 20 but none was delivered — no render/selfcheck/archive/commit followed any of them — and an August 21 session got partway through delivering the Aug 20 numbers into only 2 of 6 reports (not this one) before stopping, also not delivered. A same-day 2026-08-22_draft catch-up cycle then independently re-verified the hold and was fully delivered — rendered, selfchecked, archived, and git-committed — but stayed uncommitted (owner-stamp sense) after a fact-check that cycle caught a materially false claim in the Iran War Risk pillar report. This version — 2026-08-22_draft2, a FULL WEEKLY refresh, the first deep multi-source research dive since Aug 8 — independently re-verifies all of it again via a dedicated primary-source research pass, and HOLDS FLAT at 32/47/58/82/92, unchanged since Aug 8. The Sept 15 cloture-on-motion-to-proceed date is reconfirmed via 7+ outlets with no schedule change; Sen. Gallego's on-record Aug 19 SALT Wyoming remarks confirm the White House still hasn't substantively answered the Tillis-Gallego ethics counter-proposal; WH adviser Patrick Witt's Aug 19 "fully committed" remarks are combative messaging, not a concession; no stablecoin-yield movement was found; Polymarket (~19.5%, volatile) and Kalshi (~22%) sit roughly where the range already carried; an unverified, non-journalistic X post claiming the ethics fight is "officially solved" is explicitly flagged and NOT used, being directly contradicted by Gallego's own on-record account; and Coinbase CEO Armstrong's "pretty optimistic" Aug 21 remarks are single-source opinion, also not used. No window moved and no call band flipped for CLARITY — but this cycle is a FULL WEEKLY refresh, categorically excluded from the runbook's delegated daily auto-stamp authority regardless of how small (here, zero) the moves are, so 2026-08-22_draft2 stays DRAFT — AWAITING MY STAMP — see My Decision below.

COINPICKS PILLAR REPORT · WEIGHT: 25% OF MY THESIS

Written June 5, 2026 · Updated & Re-verified August 22, 2026 (full weekly refresh, 2026-08-22_draft2 — DRAFT, awaiting my stamp) · Not Financial Advice

The Scores — Committed vs. Drafts

June column committed by me June 12, 2026. Aug 16 committed (auto-stamped) is the prior baseline. Per house rule, drafts only collapse out of this table once a set actually commits — since neither Aug 22 set has committed, nothing collapses yet; every set remains in scores.json forever regardless. Aug 17, 18, and 20 drafts were written but never delivered; an Aug 21 session delivered the Aug 20 numbers into only 2 of 6 reports before stopping, also not delivered. The same-day Aug 22 catch-up draft (d1) held flat, was fully delivered (rendered/selfchecked/archived/committed to git), but stayed uncommitted after an adversarial fact-check caught a false claim in the Iran War Risk pillar report. This full weekly refresh, 2026-08-22_draft2 (d2), independently re-confirms the hold via fresh primary-source research and is left as DRAFT — AWAITING MY STAMP, because full weekly refreshes are categorically excluded from the runbook's delegated daily auto-stamp authority, regardless of the size of the move (here, zero).

Current draft P (Aug 22 d2): 32 / 47 / 58 / 82 / 92 · Weight: 20% (equal) · Impact: 8 (uniform) · Formula: Signal = ((P - 50) ÷ 50) × Quality × Impact. Full lineage: June committed 55/60/65/85/92 (Jun 12) → ... (see prior versions of this report for the full Jul 8-Aug 7 path) → Aug 8 32/47/58/82/92 (3mo up — Thune files cloture, locking in a Sept 15-16 procedural vote; committed and stamped by Alex) → Aug 9-16 32/47/58/82/92 (held flat, auto-stamped daily; Aug 16 committed) → Aug 17 draft (written, never delivered) → Aug 18 draft (written, never delivered) → Aug 20 draft (written, never delivered) → Aug 21 session (delivered the Aug 20 numbers into only 2 of 6 reports, never finished/rendered/archived/committed) → Aug 22 draft d1 32/47/58/82/92 (held flat, independently re-verified, catch-up cycle — fully delivered: rendered, selfchecked, archived, git-committed — but left uncommitted after an Iran War Risk fact-check issue held the whole set) → Aug 22 draft d2 32/47/58/82/92 (held flat again, full weekly refresh, independently re-confirmed via fresh primary-source research) — left as DRAFT, awaiting Alex's manual review (CLARITY's own evidence is clean and routine; the hold is purely because full weekly refreshes never auto-stamp, per house rule, not because of anything CLARITY-specific this time).

THE THREE INPUTS, IN PLAIN ENGLISH

P — the odds this is good for crypto by then. Held flat this cycle at 32/47/58/82/92 — unchanged since Aug 8, through this morning's already-delivered Aug 22 catch-up draft (d1) and now through this full weekly refresh (d2), both independently re-verified against fresh primary sources rather than trusted at face value. The Sept 15, 2:15pm ET cloture vote on the motion to proceed remains the only scheduled floor date, reconfirmed via 7+ outlets (The Block, Bitcoin.com, Troutman Financial Services, CCN, Disruption Banking, news.bitcoin.com, Yahoo/Motley Fool) with no schedule change found — and it bears repeating this is a cloture vote on the motion to proceed only, not final passage, which still needs its own floor debate/amendments and its own 60 votes. Sen. Ruben Gallego, on-record at the Aug 19 SALT Wyoming Blockchain Symposium (crypto.news, Cointelegraph, FXStreet, Blockonomi), confirmed the White House has not given a point-by-point response to the bipartisan Tillis-Gallego ethics counter-proposal sent before recess — responses have come back "blank, weaker than before, or not at all" — and he explicitly warned against rushing the Sept 15 vote; this confirms the deadlock persists as of Aug 19, not new deterioration. White House crypto adviser Patrick Witt said Aug 19 the administration is "fully committed" to passage in September and will keep negotiating with Democrats up to the vote, while publicly blaming Senate Democrats for blocking the pre-recess vote (Cointelegraph, Yahoo Finance, crypto-economy.com, CryptoTimes, crypto.news, CryptoSlate, Cryptopolitan) — combative public messaging, not evidence of a substantive concession. No stablecoin-yield-provision developments were found this window — still one of two unresolved binding blockers alongside ethics, status quo. Prediction markets, labeled as market prices not institutional estimates: Polymarket "signed in 2026" ~19.5% as of ~Aug 21 (CCN: volatile, dipping to ~15.5% before a partial recovery) and Kalshi's "reaches 60 votes" ~22% (Aug 21, Motley Fool/Fool.com) — both trending down since earlier-2026 highs but roughly consistent with, not below, the range already reflected in the low 1mo P=32, and market prices can't move P on their own under house rules regardless. An unverified, non-journalistic X post from a promotional crypto-project account (@iotex_io), circulating ~Aug 20-21, claimed the ethics provision "finally has a deal on the table" and is "officially solved" — explicitly NOT used: single-source, non-journalistic, and directly contradicted by Gallego's own on-record Aug 19 statement. Coinbase CEO Brian Armstrong said Aug 21 he's "pretty optimistic" the bill clears 60 votes, arguing Thune wouldn't have scheduled Sept 15 without expecting passage and that "both sides got 90% or so of what they want" (Motley Fool/Fool.com) — single-source opinion from an interested industry party, logged not scored, and its tone runs counter to Gallego's account. The move stays flat because Republicans still hold only 53 of the 60 votes needed and roughly zero Democrats are confirmed as yes votes. The actual live blocker, unchanged since Aug 8: a toughened Democratic ethics counter-proposal has sat unanswered at the White House since roughly Aug 1-3. Long-term still high — even the bears argue "slips past the midterms," not "dies."

Quality — how trustworthy the evidence is. Unchanged this cycle per house rules.

Impact — 8 out of 10, the uniform value every pillar now shares in the equal-weight model. This bill writes the rules for the entire market.

The Claim

The thesis as of August 22, 2026 (full weekly refresh, 2026-08-22_draft2), and where I differ from the consensus — flat since Aug 8, through three undelivered drafts, an interrupted Aug 21 delivery, this morning's delivered Aug 22 catch-up draft, and now a full independent re-dig, nothing structural moved

The crowd: is split between Patrick Witt's Aug 19 "fully committed" combativeness (blaming Democrats for the delay while insisting September still happens) and Coinbase CEO Armstrong's Aug 21 "pretty optimistic" read that both sides already got "90% or so" of what they want. A promotional crypto-project X account went further this week, claiming the ethics fight is "officially solved" — that claim is unverified, non-journalistic, and directly contradicted by the one on-record account that actually matters here.

Me: holding at 32/47/58/82/92 unchanged since Aug 8 — including through three drafts (Aug 17, 18, 20) that were written but never delivered, an Aug 21 session that delivered those numbers into only 2 of 6 reports before stopping, this morning's fully delivered Aug 22 catch-up draft, and today's separate full weekly refresh, independently re-verifying all of it again against fresh primary sources. Sen. Ruben Gallego — the actual Democratic negotiator on the ethics language — said on the record at the Aug 19 SALT Wyoming Blockchain Symposium that White House responses have come back "blank, weaker than before, or not at all," and warned against rushing the Sept 15 vote. That quote, corroborated by 4+ outlets, outweighs both Witt's messaging and Armstrong's optimism, and it flatly contradicts the "officially solved" social-media claim. Republicans still hold only 53 of 60 needed, and both real blockers — the unanswered ethics counter-proposal and the stablecoin-yield/banking dispute — remain open as of Aug 21.

My edge: unchanged since June — the crowd keeps pricing a timing problem like a death problem. The House did its half a year ago (294-134). A formally filed, precisely-dated cloture vote — reconfirmed again this week via 7+ outlets with no schedule slip — is a Senate actually moving a bill rather than sitting on it. I'm not moving any window today because nothing about the structural math (still 7 Democratic votes short) changed — Polymarket (~19.5%, volatile) and Kalshi (~22%) are noisy versus the range already carried, Armstrong's optimism is a single interested voice, and the "officially solved" X post is worse than noise, it's a claim I can actively disprove — exactly the kind of single-sourcing and unverified chatter I don't chase.

The Facts

As of August 22, 2026 — full weekly refresh (2026-08-22_draft2), the first deep multi-source research dive since Aug 8, run after this morning's Aug 22 catch-up draft (d1) was already delivered. Hard numbers only, sources on the last page. New facts from this cycle's dedicated research pass appear first; earlier facts are carried forward unchanged (still load-bearing) below.

- ★ ★ NEW — the Sept 15, 2:15pm ET cloture vote on the motion to proceed remains the only scheduled floor date, reconfirmed via 7+ outlets as of Aug 21 (The Block, Bitcoin.com, Troutman Financial Services, CCN, Disruption Banking, news.bitcoin.com, Yahoo/Motley Fool) and independently adversarially re-verified this cycle, with no schedule change found. This is a cloture vote on the motion to proceed only, not final passage — floor debate/amendments and a separate 60-vote passage threshold still follow.
- ★ ★ NEW — Sen. Ruben Gallego, on the record at the Aug 19, 2026 SALT Wyoming Blockchain Symposium, said the White House has not given a point-by-point response to the bipartisan Tillis-Gallego ethics counter-proposal sent before the August recess — responses have come back "blank, weaker than before, or not at all." He also explicitly warned against rushing the Sept 15 vote. Multi-source: crypto.news, Cointelegraph, FXStreet, Blockonomi, all reporting the same SALT remarks. This confirms the ethics deadlock persists as of Aug 19 — a direct on-record confirmation that nothing has moved, not new deterioration.
- ★ ★ NEW — White House crypto adviser Patrick Witt said Aug 19 the administration is "fully committed" to getting CLARITY passed in September and would keep negotiating with Democrats up to the vote, while publicly blaming Senate Democrats for blocking the pre-recess vote. Multi-source (Cointelegraph, Yahoo Finance, crypto-economy.com, CryptoTimes, crypto.news, CryptoSlate, Cryptopolitan). Read as combative public messaging, not evidence of a substantive concession — not used to move P.
- No stablecoin-yield-provision developments found this window — still one of two unresolved binding blockers alongside ethics, status quo.
- Prediction markets (market prices, not institutional estimates — house rule), this cycle's fresh pull: Polymarket "signed in 2026" ~19.5% as of ~Aug 21 (CCN: volatile, falling to ~15.5% before recovering slightly); Kalshi's "60 votes" market ~22% as of Aug 21. Both trending down since earlier-2026 highs but roughly consistent with, not below, what's already reflected in the low 1mo P=32 — not a clean directional signal, and market prices alone can't move P under house rules regardless.
- ★ ★ NEW, FLAGGED AND EXPLICITLY NOT USED — an unverified, non-journalistic X post from a crypto project's promotional account (@iotex_io) circulating ~Aug 20-21 claimed the ethics provision "finally has a deal on the table" and is "officially solved." This is single-source, non-journalistic, and directly contradicted by Gallego's own on-record Aug 19 statement (reported by 4+ independent outlets). Named explicitly here as an unverified/likely-inaccurate claim circulating in crypto social media that this report is NOT using.
- ★ ★ NEW — Coinbase CEO Brian Armstrong said Aug 21 he's "pretty optimistic" the bill clears 60 votes, arguing Thune wouldn't have scheduled Sept 15 if he didn't expect passage, and that "both sides got 90% or so of what they want." Single source (Motley Fool/Fool.com), an interested industry party's opinion — flagged explicitly as single-source opinion, and its optimistic tone runs counter to Gallego's account. Not used to move P.
- No change found to the confirmed Democratic yes-vote count (still zero) or to any primary-source Senate floor action.
- Recommendation this cycle: HOLD all five windows flat at 32/47/58/82/92 — nothing found clears the sufficiency bar (primary source or 2+ independents) for a move beyond what was already priced in as of this morning's Aug 22 draft.

Carried forward from the same-day Aug 22 catch-up draft (d1 — independently re-verified, fully delivered: rendered, selfchecked, archived, git-committed; re-verified again this cycle, not contradicted):

- ★ ★ the SEC formally proposed "Regulation Crypto Assets" on Aug 18 (sec.gov press release 2026-76) — a token-offering exemption regime: a startup exemption ($\leq $5M$ over 4 years), a fundraising exemption ($\leq $75M$ over 12 months), and a conditional safe harbor from the "investment contract" definition. This is a separate SEC rulemaking track, not the CLARITY Act, and does not touch CLARITY's binding ethics-provision or stablecoin-yield disputes — not used to move P.
- ★ ★ Trump hosted a White House crypto event on Aug 19, with SEC Chair Atkins, CFTC Chair Selig, and industry CEOs present, and publicly pushed Congress to pass "a fair version" of CLARITY. Multi-sourced (CoinDesk, Bloomberg, Forbes). Real public pressure and rhetoric — no text change or deadlock resolution reported, so not used to move P.
- As of Aug 21, both live disputes remain open: the ethics-provision fight (Democrats pressing for stronger limits on officials' crypto holdings) still has no confirmed White House sign-off on the Tillis-Gallego language; the stablecoin-yield/banking dispute is also still unresolved.
- Prediction markets logged that morning: Polymarket "signed into law in 2026" = 25% Yes (Aug 22 direct pull); Kalshi's "reaches 60 votes" market $\approx 22\%$ (Aug 21) — this cycle's fresh pull instead reads Polymarket $\sim 19.5\%$ (above), illustrating the kind of intra-week volatility the house rule treats as noise, not signal, on its own.
- ★ ★ FLAGGED, NOT SCORED — Coinbase CEO Brian Armstrong's on-record prediction that CLARITY "will pass" is single-source opinion (one person, one outlet's framing) — explicitly not used to move P per the house sufficiency rule; see the more specific Aug 21 "pretty optimistic" remarks logged above.

Carried forward from the Aug 17, 18, and 20 drafts (written but never delivered — no report/render/archive/commit followed any of them; independently re-verified today, not contradicted):

- Sen. Ruben Gallego, speaking at the SALT Wyoming Blockchain Symposium on Aug 20, said White House responses to the Tillis-Gallego ethics counter-proposal "have come back blank, weaker than before, or not at all," and separately warned against rushing a floor vote (Blockonomi/Cointelegraph, FXStreet, Crypto-Economy, all Aug 20) — reaffirms the existing stalemate rather than deepening it.
- Senate Banking Chair Tim Scott said (The Block, Aug 18) the stablecoin-yield provision "we thought was all settled" has resurfaced as a live dispute, amid community-bank lobbying against stablecoin yield eroding GOP support — still open and unresolved as of Aug 21 (see above).
- White House digital-assets adviser Patrick Witt called himself "truly optimistic and bullish" on passage (The Block, Aug 18) despite the stablecoin friction — rhetoric only, no new whip count given.
- Polymarket "signed in 2026" bounced from $\sim 16\%$ (around Aug 14-15) to $\sim 24\%$ (Aug 20 live pull) on no identified news catalyst, and has since settled to 25% (Aug 22) — noise, not used to move P.
- ★ ★ FLAGGED FOR THE RECORD, not scored: Galaxy Research appears to have cut its 2026-passage estimate further to 10% (from the 30% already reflected in this report's history) around Aug 14-15. This predates the Aug 16-22 window and looks like a gap in an earlier research cycle rather than new information — flagging for Alex's attention, not treating as a driver of today's score.

Carried forward from the August 16 committed baseline (still load-bearing; independently re-verified, not contradicted, this cycle):

- ★ ★ NEW — the SEC cancelled its Aug 14 "Regulation Crypto" open-meeting vote the day before it was scheduled, citing an "unforeseen scheduling issue" (crypto.news, TechTimes, Genfinity). The ~ 400 -page proposal would have created token-offering exemption pathways under a separate SEC rulemaking track — relevant context on regulatory limbo across both branches, but not a CLARITY-specific trigger; not used to move P.
- The Senate remains in August recess; no new floor-schedule or ethics-text development found (as of Aug 16). Re-checked Bitcoin Foundation, Troutman Financial Services, CoinDesk — all confirm the Sept 15 cloture date as the only scheduled action (Senate returns Sept 14, three weeks to work the bill), with no new reporting on the Tillis-Gallego ethics counteroffer or White House sign-off.

- The Sept 15, 2:15pm ET cloture date remains widely corroborated — no change from Aug 14.
- New detail on remaining disputes: illicit-finance provisions and reconciling the Senate Agriculture Committee's text are named as two additional sticking points ahead of the vote (PYMNTS) — consistent with, not exceeding, the "multiple unresolved fights" picture already carried.
- CONFIRMED (Aug 8): Thune filed cloture on the motion to proceed to H.R. 3633. Confirmed against 5 independent outlets (CoinGape, CryptoBriefing, CoinDesk, Cointelegraph, CryptoSlate) plus partial primary corroboration via the bill's own congress.gov calendar text (Calendar No. 423).
- The real live blocker remains a toughened Democratic ethics counter-proposal, unanswered at the White House since roughly Aug 1-3 (crypto.news, "CLARITY Act stalls as Trump stays silent on ethics deal," Aug 3; corroborated by Coindesk's Jul 29 report that senators were negotiating a stronger version of the original concession).
- Zero confirmed Democratic yes votes on cloture as of Aug 16, against a need for roughly 7-10 crossover votes to reach 60; Republicans hold 53.
- Polymarket "signed in 2026" (market odds, not an institutional estimate) remains around the mid-teens per the conflicting cached reads (13-21%) noted Aug 14 — not re-verified as of Aug 16, still well below the Jul 21 local peak of 43%. Treat the exact figure as noisy; the directional read (still depressed vs. earlier in the year) is the reliable part.

Carried forward from the July 30 full refresh (still load-bearing):

- ★ ★ PRIMARY-SOURCE CONFIRMATION — CLARITY was not on the Senate floor calendar Jul 28-29. A direct pull of the Senate's own daily floor schedule (dailypress.senate.gov) shows Jul 28's time went to a memorial ceremony for the late Sen. Lindsey Graham plus an executive-calendar nominee vote, and Jul 29 went to the motion to proceed on the Russia/Iran sanctions bill (which passed 86-12). This is a harder, primary-source confirmation of "no floor time" than any leadership quote — and confirms no path to passage before the Aug 7 recess.
- ★ Tillis-Gallego ethics counteroffer reported — real, but not finalized. CoinDesk (tier-1) and 4+ corroborating outlets report Sens. Tillis (R-NC) and Gallego (D-AZ) struck new common ground on an ethics compromise (Jul 29-30). The exact text is undisclosed and White House sign-off is unconfirmed — CoinDesk's own reporting hedges "whether they've actually done it is unclear," and neither senator's office nor the White House responded to comment requests. Treat as real movement, not a completed deal.
- ★ NEW — a second ethics-adjacent fight surfaced and was rejected by both sides. A proposal to give prosecutors enforcement leeway over software-developer liability was floated and then rejected Jul 30 by both the White House (adviser Patrick Witt mocking the comparison) and the crypto industry (DeFi Education Fund's Amanda Tuminelli: "not a constructive or serious proposal"). A fresh friction point, not yet resolved.
- ★ NEW — SEC Chair Atkins says the SEC can write crypto rules unilaterally if Congress stalls. Atkins told CNBC (Jul 29, corroborated by 5+ outlets) the SEC is "ready, willing, and able" to issue crypto market-structure rules on its own, while still calling statute the preferred, "future-proof" path. A modest reducer of legislative urgency — noted, not scored.
- Odds board (sentiment only) — as independently re-verified July 30: Polymarket's "signed in 2026" contract hit a record low of 27% (Jul 29) before recovering to 30% (my own live pull, Jul 30) — down from the ~35% read a week ago. Galaxy Research's Alex Thorn cut his personal 2026-passage estimate from 50% to 30% — confirmed real and well-corroborated, but dated to Jul 24-25, not this week; not double-counted here.
- Vote math — carried forward, unchanged: GOP floor count remains ~53; still only Gallego and Alsobrooks on record as Democratic negotiators, both conditioning votes on enforceable ethics language. Firmly committed Democratic votes: zero.
- Sen. Graham's death and the Senate's memorial calendar continue to consume floor time this week — a genuine, primary-source-confirmed scheduling drag, distinct from any "thinned floor math" inference (which was already corrected in an earlier cycle: his SC seat was refilled within 48 hours, GOP floor count restored to ~53).

- Ethics talks were broken as recently as Jul 22 (seven Senate Democrats formally rejected the GOP's DOJ-enforcement draft that day) but the Tillis-Gallego report suggests movement since — carried forward as the binding constraint, now potentially loosening.
- The June 30 ethics bomb, still the root cause: OGE released Trump's 927-page disclosure on June 30: ~$1.4B of 2025 crypto income — $635M in TRUMP-memecoin royalties, $500M+ WLF-related. Gillibrand: "there is no CLARITY Act without an ethics provision."
- Section 604 / Wyden's developer-protection push — carried forward, corroborated by 9+ independent outlets. No committed Democratic floor vote attached to it yet.
- The stablecoin-yield fight — carried forward, still closed off rather than resolved: Banking Chairman Tim Scott rejected bank lobbyists' request to change yield-related restrictions on the floor; Coinbase's ~$1.35B/yr USDC-rewards structure survives in the text as-is.
- Still true from June, still load-bearing: the House passed H.R. 3633 294-134 on July 17, 2025 (bipartisan); Senate Banking advanced its separate substitute 15-9 on May 14, 2026. House fast-follow plan (companion bill, Rep. Dusty Johnson) unchanged.

The Prize

Illustrative only — not price targets, not advice

Anchor: BTC $77,169.40 (Bitstamp daily close, August 22, 2026) — up from $71,882.92 on Aug 20 (+7.4%). A GENIUS-sized move (~40–47%) from here ≈ ~$108–113K. A retest of the ~$125K high ≈ +62%. The anchor is real: during the GENIUS Act's passage (Senate committee Mar 13 → signed July 18, 2025) Bitcoin ran from ~$83K to ~$120K (≈+44%).

Discount both — 2025 had tailwinds 2026 doesn't, and the GENIUS rally itself fully retraced. And note the coil cuts both ways: prediction-market odds bottomed at a fresh record low of 13% on Aug 5, bounced to a noisy 20-27% on the cloture filing, and have since settled to 25% (Polymarket, Aug 22) and ~22% (Kalshi's 60-vote market, Aug 21) — still a real repricing from the ~74-82% readings earlier in 2026, but flat and noisy week to week rather than trending. The cloture filing is a dated procedural step, not evidence the underlying passage odds have durably moved; the odds swings are sentiment, not a scored fact. The Prize doesn't feed the math — it tells you what the lean is worth acting on, and this week's further BTC gain against a completely flat CLARITY score is itself a reminder that this pillar's signal and price action aren't the same thing.

The Other Side

The strongest honest case this is wrong

- The Tillis-Gallego "breakthrough" isn't confirmed by either side. No text is public, the White House hasn't signed off, and CoinDesk's own reporting hedges on whether the senators have actually reached an agreement. This report is giving real weight (an 8-point 6mo improvement from the Jul 18 low) to something that could evaporate as easily as the Jul 20-22 ethics deal did when seven Democrats rejected it.
- A second unresolved fight just opened up. The developer/software-liability dispute, rejected by both the White House and industry Jul 30, shows that even as one axis of the ethics fight narrows, new disputes keep appearing — a pattern, not a one-off.
- A cloture filing with no Democratic votes lined up may just be political theater. Punchbowl's own sourcing says Democrats consider this vote "doomed" — if Thune is filing cloture knowing it will fail, the point may be to put Democrats on the record before the midterms rather than to actually advance the bill, which would make today's "progress" more symbolic than substantive.

- The floor-calendar problem doesn't have an end date either. "No path before recess" was confirmed by Thune himself, but this report's own history is repeated rounds of missed "imminent" and "targeted" dates — nothing guarantees the actual Sept 15-16 vote produces real movement rather than another procedural loss, and September is also when midterm-campaign politics starts eating floor time.
- Prediction markets are genuinely more bearish than a month ago. A record-low 27% print, even if it partially recovered, is real information — Galaxy Research's own house view dropped from 50% to 30% independent of any single news event, suggesting professional handicappers see this as a genuine coin-toss-or-worse on 2026 passage.
- The SEC's "we'll do it ourselves" signal cuts against urgency. If the White House and industry believe the SEC can deliver workable rules unilaterally, that reduces the political cost of letting CLARITY slip further — a slow bleed on legislative priority, not a dramatic kill.
- The midterms are still the real wall: miss August 7 and September belongs to election politics. Worst case — Congress resets in January and the Senate starts its bill over.

The Triggers

Dated events ahead — some prove the claim right, some prove it wrong. Re-set August 22, 2026 — full weekly refresh, 2026-08-22_draft2, run after this morning's Aug 22 catch-up draft (d1) was already delivered (Aug 17, 18, and 20 drafts written but not delivered; an Aug 21 session delivered the Aug 20 numbers into only 2 of 6 reports, not this one, before stopping).

DATE	EVENT	MEANS
Fired Aug 8, reconfirmed via 7+ outlets as of Aug 21, adversarially re-verified Aug 22 (d2)	Cloture vote on the motion to proceed to H.R. 3633 is scheduled 2:15pm ET Tuesday, Sept 15 — no schedule change found (The Block, Bitcoin.com, Troutman Financial Services, CCN, Disruption Banking, news.bitcoin.com, Yahoo/Motley Fool); this is a motion-to-proceed cloture vote only, not final passage	Confirmation of the Aug 8 trigger, not a new one — no P move
Aug 19, checked Aug 22 (d2)	Sen. Gallego's on-record SALT Wyoming remarks — WH ethics responses "blank, weaker than before, or not at all"; warned against rushing Sept 15 (crypto.news, Cointelegraph, FXStreet, Blockonomi)	Direct on-record confirmation the ethics deadlock persists — no P move
Aug 19, checked Aug 22 (d2)	WH adviser Patrick Witt "fully committed" to September passage while blaming Senate Democrats for the pre-recess delay (Cointelegraph, Yahoo Finance, crypto-economy.com, CryptoTimes, crypto.news, CryptoSlate, Cryptopolitan)	Combative public messaging, not a substantive concession — no P move
Checked Aug 21 — both still open	Ethics-provision dispute (no confirmed WH sign-off on Tillis-Gallego language) and the stablecoin-yield/banking dispute both remain unresolved; no stablecoin-yield movement found this cycle	The actual blockers, unchanged — no P move
Circulating ~Aug 20-21, flagged Aug 22 (d2)	NOT FIRED / NOT USED — unverified, non-journalistic X post (@iotex_io) claiming the ethics provision is "officially solved," directly contradicted by Gallego's own Aug 19 on-record account	Named and excluded, not scored — a caution flag, not a trigger
Aug 18-20, re-verified Aug 22	Sen. Gallego's earlier SALT Wyoming remarks (Aug 20 sourcing) and Sen. Tim Scott's stablecoin-yield comment (Aug 18) — WH ethics responses described as "blank, weaker than before, or not at all"; stablecoin-yield provision resurfaces as a live dispute	Reaffirms the existing stalemate and logs a wrinkle now folded into "both open" above — no P move
Aug 21, logged Aug 22 (d2)	Coinbase CEO Armstrong "pretty optimistic" on 60 votes, single-source opinion (Motley Fool/Fool.com), tone counter to Gallego's account	Flagged, not scored — no P move
Sept 15	PENDING — first cloture vote (motion to proceed), now precisely dated; Democrats call it "doomed" absent further concessions; Republicans hold 53 of 60 needed	Cloture clears = re-rate 3mo/6mo up hard, real momentum; cloture fails cleanly = re-rate down, base case shifts toward 2027
Unresolved since Jul 30	Tillis-Gallego ethics counteroffer — real per CoinDesk + 4 outlets as of Jul 29-30, text still undisclosed, WH sign-off still not confirmed as of Aug 21; Gallego's own Aug 19 remarks confirm no meaningful WH response yet	If confirmed and signed off before the vote, the single biggest unlock this year — watch for a released text

Ongoing	Three named Democratic blocking issues: ethics enforcement, illicit-finance/DeFi provisions, stablecoin yield (Yahoo Finance, Aug 5)	Resolution on all three before the vote = real chance of cloture succeeding; continued silence = the "doomed" framing holds
Any time	NOT FIRED — White House formally signs off on a merged text with Democratic buy-in	The single biggest unlock — Democratic votes follow; re-rate everything up

The flip line: cloture fails on Sept 15-16 with no released, WH-confirmed ethics text and no clear next-step plan = start treating 2026 passage as effectively dead, not just delayed. Keep 1-year and 3-year Bull either way — a bill with 294 House votes, a reported bipartisan ethics counteroffer, and a formally filed cloture motion is delayed, not dead.

My Decision

0 DRAFT — AUGUST 22, 2026 (FULL WEEKLY REFRESH, 2026-08-22_draft2) · AWAITING MY STAMP

Committed P: 32 / 47 / 58 / 82 / 92 (holds flat) · Weight: 20% (equal) · Impact: 8 (uniform)

Held flat again today — unchanged since Aug 8, across three undelivered drafts (Aug 17, 18, 20 — none followed by a report/render/archive/commit), an Aug 21 session that delivered the Aug 20 numbers into only 2 of 6 reports (not this one) before stopping, and this morning's Aug 22 catch-up draft (d1), which was fully delivered — rendered, selfchecked, archived, and git-committed. This full weekly refresh, the first deep multi-source dive since Aug 8, independently re-confirms all of it again against fresh primary sources rather than trusting any prior draft. The Sept 15, 2:15pm ET cloture-on-motion-to-proceed date is unchanged, reconfirmed via 7+ outlets. Sen. Gallego's on-record Aug 19 SALT Wyoming remarks confirm the White House still hasn't substantively answered the Tillis-Gallego ethics counter-proposal — responses "blank, weaker than before, or not at all" — and WH adviser Patrick Witt's Aug 19 "fully committed" remarks are combative messaging, not a concession. No stablecoin-yield movement was found. Prediction markets (Polymarket ~19.5%, volatile; Kalshi ~22%) sit roughly where the range already carried, and Coinbase CEO Armstrong's Aug 21 "pretty optimistic" remarks are single-source opinion — none of it clears the sufficiency bar to move P. An unverified, non-journalistic X post claiming the ethics fight is "officially solved" was found circulating this week and is explicitly flagged as NOT used — it is directly contradicted by Gallego's own on-record account. The real live blocker, unchanged since Aug 8, remains a toughened Democratic ethics counter-proposal sitting unanswered at the White House since roughly Aug 1-3.

This cycle independently re-confirmed the existing hold via full primary-source research. No window moved and no call band flipped for CLARITY. It is left as DRAFT — AWAITING MY STAMP, not auto-stamped, because this is a FULL WEEKLY refresh — categorically excluded from the runbook's delegated daily auto-stamp authority, regardless of how small (here, zero) the moves are. This is a distinct reason from why the earlier same-day Aug 22 catch-up draft (d1) stayed uncommitted (that one was held because an adversarial fact-check caught a false claim in the Iran War Risk pillar report); this draft2 set would stay a draft on its own procedural terms even if no other pillar had any open issue at all.

The June committed scores (55 / 60 / 65 / 85 / 92, committed June 12, 2026) and the Aug 16 committed scores (32 / 47 / 58 / 82 / 92) remain the last committed values — identical to today's draft, which stays uncommitted pending Alex's manual review.

Override any P and re-stamp — the master blend recomputes.

What Changed Since Last Check

Full weekly refresh, August 22, 2026 (2026-08-22_draft2) — the first deep multi-source research dive since Aug 8, run after this morning's Aug 22 catch-up draft (d1) was already fully delivered (rendered, selfchecked, archived, git-committed). Checking for changes since that delivered draft, and re-verifying everything back to the Aug 16 committed baseline.

- This morning's Aug 22 catch-up draft (d1) was fully delivered — rendered, selfchecked, archived, and git-committed — but stayed uncommitted (owner-stamp sense) after a fact-check that cycle caught a materially false claim in the Iran War Risk pillar report, which held the whole score set for manual review. This is a separate, later cycle: a full weekly refresh that independently re-confirms d1's findings against fresh primary sources and lands as a new dated set, 2026-08-22_draft2, per the runbook's same-day-after-delivery rule.
- ★ ★ NEW — the Sept 15, 2:15pm ET cloture-on-motion-to-proceed date reconfirmed via 7+ outlets (The Block, Bitcoin.com, Troutman Financial Services, CCN, Disruption Banking, news.bitcoin.com, Yahoo/Motley Fool) as of Aug 21, independently adversarially re-verified this cycle — no schedule change found; still a motion-to-proceed vote only, not final passage.
- ★ ★ NEW — Sen. Ruben Gallego, on the record at the Aug 19 SALT Wyoming Blockchain Symposium (crypto.news, Cointelegraph, FXStreet, Blockonomi), confirmed the White House has not given a point-by-point response to the Tillis-Gallego ethics counter-proposal — responses "blank, weaker than before, or not at all" — and warned against rushing the Sept 15 vote. Confirms the deadlock persists, not new deterioration.
- ★ ★ NEW — WH crypto adviser Patrick Witt (Aug 19) said the administration is "fully committed" to September passage and will keep negotiating with Democrats, while publicly blaming Senate Democrats for the pre-recess delay (Cointelegraph, Yahoo Finance, crypto-economy.com, CryptoTimes, crypto.news, CryptoSlate, Cryptopolitan) — combative messaging, not a concession, not used to move P.
- No stablecoin-yield-provision developments found this window — still an open blocker, status quo.
- Prediction markets, this cycle's fresh pull: Polymarket "signed in 2026" ~19.5% as of ~Aug 21 (CCN: volatile, dipping to ~15.5% before recovering slightly), Kalshi "60 votes" ~22% (Aug 21) — trending down since earlier-2026 highs but roughly consistent with, not below, the range already carried; market prices, not used to move P.
- ★ ★ NEW, FLAGGED AND EXPLICITLY NOT USED — an unverified, non-journalistic X post (@iotex_io) circulating ~Aug 20-21 claimed the ethics provision is "officially solved" — single-source, non-journalistic, and directly contradicted by Gallego's own on-record Aug 19 statement (4+ outlets). Named explicitly so it isn't mistaken for a scored fact.
- ★ ★ NEW, FLAGGED NOT SCORED — Coinbase CEO Armstrong's Aug 21 "pretty optimistic" remarks on 60 votes (Motley Fool/Fool.com) are single-source opinion from an interested industry party — not used per the sufficiency rule, and its tone runs counter to Gallego's account.
- Zero confirmed Democratic yes votes on cloture — Republicans hold 53 of 60 votes needed, unchanged.
- Score re-rates (Aug 22 d1 → Aug 22 d2): 1-month 32 → 32 (held) · 3-month 47 → 47 (held) · 6-month 58 → 58 (held) · 1-year 82 → 82 (held) · 3-year 92 → 92 (held) — nothing found this cycle clears the sufficiency bar to move a window. Left as DRAFT — not auto-stamped: no window moved and no call band flipped for CLARITY, and this cycle's own evidence is clean — but a FULL WEEKLY refresh is categorically excluded from the runbook's delegated daily auto-stamp authority regardless of how small (here, zero) the moves are. So 2026-08-22_draft2 stays DRAFT — AWAITING MY STAMP, flagged prominently for Alex's manual review as house rule requires for every weekly refresh, independent of the separate Iran War Risk issue that held the earlier same-day d1 draft.
