The Scores — Committed vs. Drafts

June column committed by me June 12, 2026. July 8 and July 10 drafts shown for lineage. July 11 draft re-rated from a light 1-day re-check — NOT stamped yet. Signals below run off the July 11 draft.

WINDOW	MY JUNE P	JUL 8 DRAFT	JUL 10 DRAFT	JUL 11 DRAFT	QUALITY	IMPACT	SIGNAL	MY CALL
1 month	55	52	50	52	0.85	8	+0.3	Neutral, tilting bull
3 months	60	56	54	55	0.85	8	+0.7	Mild Bull
6 months	65	61	60	61	0.85	8	+1.5	Mild Bull
1 year	85	83	82	82	0.90	8	+4.6	Strong Bull
3 years	92	92	92	92	0.95	8	+6.4	Very Strong Bull

Draft P (Jul 11): 52 / 55 / 61 / 82 / 92 · Weight: 20% (equal) · Impact: 8 (uniform) · Formula: Signal = ((P – 50) ÷ 50) × Quality × Impact.
Lineage: June committed 55 / 60 / 65 / 85 / 92 (June 12, 2026) → July 8 draft 52 / 56 / 61 / 83 / 92 → July 10 draft 50 / 54 / 60 / 82 / 92 → July 11 draft — awaiting my stamp.

THE THREE INPUTS, IN PLAIN ENGLISH

P — the odds this is good for crypto by then. Near-term firmed slightly off the coin flip: reporting now points to a concrete Senate floor-vote target of July 20 (merged text still due the week of July 13), and Polymarket's 2026-passage odds recovered from ~40-41% on July 10 to ~46-47%. Ethics talks remain frozen and the White House still hasn't signed off — the timing fight isn't resolved, just slightly less bleak. Long-term still high — even the bears argue "slips past the midterms," not "dies."

Quality — how trustworthy the evidence is. Every source is on the last page — click and judge for yourself. Today's check is lighter than July 10's: the July-20 floor-vote date and the Polymarket odds recovery are corroborated across multiple outlets, but the underlying facts on ethics, the White House, and Section 604 weren't re-verified from scratch today — they carry forward from July 10 with no evidence they've changed.

Impact — 8 out of 10, the uniform value every pillar now shares in the equal-weight model. This bill writes the rules for the entire market.

The Claim

The thesis as of July 11, 2026, and where I differ from the consensus

The crowd: bounced off Friday's repricing. Polymarket's 2026-signing market slid to ~40-41% on July 10 (–4.5¢ that day alone) but has since recovered to ~46-47% as reporting firmed up a concrete Senate floor-vote target of July 20. Kalshi's end-of-2026 contract (~34-36¢ on July 10) and its thin 2027-28 ladder weren't re-checked today. The loud story is unchanged in substance: no cloture motion yet, ethics still frozen, but the calendar just got a specific date attached to it instead of a vague "week of."

Me: draft ~52% for the next month — still close to a coin flip, nudged bullish — and ~92% that a crypto rules law exists within 3 years.

My edge: unchanged since June — the crowd keeps pricing a timing problem like a death problem. The House did its half a year ago (294-134). A merged Banking–Agriculture text is still expected the week of July 13, and now multiple outlets (not just one reporting thread) point to a July 20 Senate floor vote target. That is what

"negotiating over how, not whether" looks like. The fight is still down to one variable — an ethics deal — and one-variable problems get solved or slipped, not killed.

The Facts

As of July 11, 2026 — hard numbers only, sources on the last page. Facts below carry forward from the July 10 check except where marked ★ new; today's re-check was light (targeted, not full re-verification).

- ★ NEW — the floor-vote target firmed to a specific date: July 20. Multiple outlets (TechTimes, The Crypto Times, Cointribune, CoinGape — all July 10) now report the Senate is eyeing a July 20 floor vote on CLARITY, with the merged Banking-Agriculture draft still expected the week of July 13. This is a firmer, multi-source version of what was a single-thread "week of July 20" target on July 9-10.
- ★ NEW — Polymarket's 2026-passage odds recovered to ~46-47%, up from the ~40-41% low logged July 10 (which itself was down from 46-47% on July 7-8) — a round-trip in three days that underscores how sentiment-driven, not fact-driven, day-to-day moves in this market are.
- The calendar, exactly — now confirmed by a primary source: no cloture motion on CLARITY and no floor date as of July 10 — the bill has sat at Senate Calendar No. 423 since June 1. The Senate's own floor schedule: reconvene 3:00pm Monday, July 13; judicial nominations first (Schwartz post-cloture, a Jones confirmation vote ~5:30pm); Thune has already filed cloture on the motion to proceed to S.4784 (FY27 NDAA) — the NDAA owns week one, exactly as assumed. Last session day before the August break: Friday, August 7 — roughly 19–20 working days. TD Cowen (June 29): procedural steps the week of July 13 or July 20, with July 24 the critical date so the House can act before its own recess. One July 7 report had the floor-vote target slipping toward August 6.
- ★ NEW — the merged text is reportedly imminent. CoinDesk (July 9, citing people briefed on negotiations): a unified draft combining the Senate Banking and Agriculture texts — "more than 70 pages of text added," leaning harder into consumer protections — may drop as soon as the week of July 13, with advocates expecting floor action as soon as the week of July 20. Corroborated by The Crypto Times (July 10) and consistent with American Banker's independent July 9 reporting — but the scoop itself is a single primary reporting thread (other coverage largely derivative). This partially resolves the reconciliation question and puts a concrete date on TD Cowen's "week of July 13 or 20" path.
- ★ NEW NEGATIVE — the White House has NOT signed off on the merged text and has not engaged in the most recent negotiations (CoinDesk, July 9 — single source). The administration that demanded speed is currently outside the deal.
- Ethics talks are still broken — now confirmed by two independent outlets (July 9). Collapsed June 9, not restarted. American Banker: the state-AGs-sue-DOJ compromise "dropped out of negotiations, and they haven't picked back up since." CoinDesk: "progress has slowed to a crawl." White House Crypto Council ED Patrick Witt's three-party talks have produced no principal-level restart; the White House still refuses any language singling out Trump. New wrinkle (single source — Crypto In America, July 9): Lummis floated letting state AGs sue exchanges for listing tokens tied to government officials. In committee history: Van Hollen's ethics amendment failed 11–13; Republicans withdrew state-AG enforcement and offered US-AG oversight (Democrats rejected it); Lummis's June 29 revised state-AG proposal appears to be the compromise that has since dropped out.
- The June 30 ethics bomb, still live: OGE released Trump's 927-page disclosure on June 30: ~$1.4B of 2025 crypto income — $635M in TRUMP-memecoin royalties, $500M+ WLFI-related, $197M in USD1 stake sales (outlets differ on the WLFI token-sale split). Gillibrand: "there is no CLARITY Act without an ethics provision" (exact wording via Yahoo's reporting; the substance — ethics language as a floor-vote prerequisite — is corroborated by crypto.news).
- Section 604 / law enforcement — no movement since July 4, one new friendly voice. NOBLE's July 1 endorsement letter (the first from any law-enforcement organization) and the Major County Sheriffs' July 4 move to neutral still stand; the National Sheriffs' Association, FOP, NAPO, the district attorneys (NDAA), and IACP

- remain opposed or silent — no new endorsements. New: Sen. Ron Wyden (D-OR) publicly backed Section 604's developer protections on July 8 (Crypto In America, July 9; echoed by CoinDesk — single-source on the date and details) — a Democratic voice defending the provision police oppose, but not a committed cloture vote.
- The vote math: still only Gallego and Alsobrooks on record — and both explicitly condition floor votes on enforceable ethics language. Warner and Cortez Masto still condition support on law-enforcement sign-off — not given. With Hawley and Paul expected R defections, that's ~51 reliable Republican votes → 7–9 Democrats needed. Firmly committed: zero. Analyst reads (American Banker, July 9 — single outlet quoting named analysts): Compass Point's Groshans sees "north of 65 votes" if ethics is resolved; CFRA's Schardin says the bill needs significant progress "in the next week or two."
 - The stablecoin-yield fight is now closed off rather than resolved (single source — American Banker, July 9): Banking Chairman Tim Scott rejected bank lobbyists' request to change yield-related restrictions on the floor; no further negotiations planned. Coinbase's ~$1.35B/yr USDC-rewards structure survives in the text as-is — the ABA loses this round.
 - Trump himself is still a signature risk: his threat to withhold his signature on a housing bill unless Congress passes the SAVE Act persists — a hostage play that squeezes scarce floor time and puts non-trivial signature risk on CLARITY itself.
 - Newly flagged as ALSO unresolved (CoinDesk, July 9): federal preemption and the SEC/CFTC commissioner-seat questions — a mild negative surprise on top of ethics.
 - Still true from June, still load-bearing: the House passed H.R. 3633 294-134 on July 17, 2025 (bipartisan); Senate Banking advanced its separate substitute 15-9 on May 14, 2026; the recess staff reconciliation appears to have produced the merged draft now reported imminent. House fast-follow plan (companion bill, no conference — Rep. Dusty Johnson) unchanged. A House FSC hearing on digital-asset market-structure gaps is confirmed for July 17 (committee event page); one outlet says it will be held in New York (single-source detail, unverified).
 - Odds board (sentiment only): Polymarket "signed in 2026" last 41¢, mid ~40¢ (39 bid / 41 ask), –4.5¢ on the day, $1.58M volume — live Gamma API, July 10, 15:58 UTC · Kalshi (live API, July 10): passage before Aug 1 ~5.4–5.6¢; before Jan 1, 2027 35–36¢ (last 35¢); new longer-dated ladder (created July 8, thin — indicative only): Apr '27 41¢ / Jul '27 51¢ / Oct '27 51¢ / Jan '28 56¢ last. (Caveat: Kalshi restructured the series July 8, so the end-of-2026 comparison to the July 8 baseline is imperfect.) · Galaxy 50% (June 29) and JPMorgan <50% — no update found July 9–10, baseline stands · TD Cowen: "far from assured" before the midterms.

The Prize

Illustrative only — not price targets, not advice

Anchor: BTC $64,128 (Bitstamp, July 11 mid-session). A GENIUS-sized move (~40–47%) from here ≈ ~$90–94K. A retest of the ~$125K high ≈ +94%. The anchor is real: during the GENIUS Act's passage (Senate committee Mar 13 → signed July 18, 2025) Bitcoin ran from ~$83K to ~$120K (≈+44%).

Discount both — 2025 had tailwinds 2026 doesn't, and the GENIUS rally itself fully retraced. And note the coil cuts both ways: one piece of good news moved Polymarket ~17 points over the July 4 weekend, July 10 alone took 4.5 points back off, and July 10-11 gave most of it back again. The Prize doesn't feed the math — it tells you what the lean is worth acting on.

The Other Side

The strongest honest case this is wrong

- The market has stopped believing "delayed, not dead": Kalshi's new 2027–28 ladder prices passage by April 2027 at 41¢ and by January 2028 at just 56¢. If the smart money thought this was a pure timing problem, those long-dated contracts would be far richer.
- The calendar is confirmed brutal: ~19 usable days, cloture already filed on the NDAA (not CLARITY), judicial nominations stacked first, and still no floor date. The week-of-July-20 "target" is advocates' expectation, not a schedule.
- The dealmaker isn't at the table: the White House hasn't signed off on the merged text and skipped the latest negotiations. A 70-page rewrite tilting toward consumer protections could as easily lose Republican votes as gain Democratic ones — and Trump is already playing signature-hostage on another bill.
- The ethics fight got harder, not easier: the only compromise on the table dropped out of negotiations entirely, the $1.4B presidential crypto disclosure is a gift to every Democrat who wants to say no, and Gillibrand's "no CLARITY Act without an ethics provision" meets a White House that refuses any Trump-specific language — immovable object, irresistible force, 19 days.
- The midterms are still the real wall: miss August 7 and September belongs to election politics. Worst case — Congress resets in January and the Senate starts its bill over.

The Triggers

Dated events ahead — some prove the claim right, some prove it wrong. Set July 11, 2026.

DATE	EVENT	MEANS
July 13	Senate returns 3:00pm; nominations then NDAA (cloture already filed on the MTP)	CLARITY floor time is realistically the week of July 20 at best
Week of July 13	Merged Banking–Agriculture text drops (now multi-source expected)	Text appears = reconciliation is real; no text = re-rate the 1-month down
July 17	House FSC hearing on market-structure gaps	House fast-follow machinery warming up
July 20	Senate floor vote now targeted (multi-source, up from a single-thread report)	Vote held & cloture clears = 2026 path very much alive; slips again = re-rate down hard
July 24	TD Cowen's critical date (House needs runway before its recess)	Passes with no cloture = re-rate the 1- and 3-month down
August 7	Last Senate session day passes with no floor vote	September collides with the midterms — 2027 becomes the base case for signing
Any time	Ethics talks restart at principal level, or the White House signs off on the merged text	The single biggest unlock — Democratic votes follow; re-rate everything up

The flip line: no merged text by ~July 17 and no cloture by ~July 24 = start treating 2026 as slipping. The last session day (August 7) passes with no vote = a 2027 signing is my base case. Keep 1-year and 3-year Bull either way — a bill with 294 House votes, two committee Democrats, a merged text reportedly drafted, and police opposition cracking is delayed, not dead.

My Decision

🕒 UPDATED DRAFT — JULY 11, 2026 · AWAITING MY STAMP

Draft P: 52 / 55 / 61 / 82 / 92 · Weight: 20% (equal) · Impact: 8 (uniform)

A small bounce back off July 10's trim: the floor-vote target firmed to a specific, multi-source date (July 20) and Polymarket odds recovered most of their July 10 drop. Ethics remains frozen and the White House still hasn't signed off — nothing structural has resolved, but the near-term coin flip tilted slightly bullish. Long-term unchanged; this is still a timing fight, not a direction fight.

The June committed scores (55 / 60 / 65 / 85 / 92, committed June 12, 2026) remain the last human-stamped values.

Override any P and re-stamp — the master blend recomputes.

What Changed Since Last Check

Light re-check July 11, 2026 (previous full re-research July 10, 2026)

- ★ The floor-vote target firmed and broadened to multiple sources: July 20. TechTimes, The Crypto Times, Cointribune, and CoinGape (all July 10) independently report the Senate is eyeing a July 20 floor vote — a step up in confidence from the single-thread "week of July 20" report used in the July 10 draft.
- ★ Polymarket's odds round-tripped: 46-47% (Jul 7-8) → ~40-41% (Jul 10) → ~46-47% (Jul 11). Three days, no resolution of the underlying dispute, and the market is right back where it started — a clean illustration of how noisy this pricing is day to day.
- Not re-verified today (carried forward from July 10, no evidence of change): ethics talks remain frozen; the White House still hasn't signed off on the merged text; Section 604 law-enforcement opposition status; the stablecoin-yield fight closure; Kalshi's end-of-2026 pricing and 2027-28 ladder.
- Scores re-rated (July 10 draft → July 11 draft): 1-month 50 → 52 — the firmer, multi-source July 20 date and the Polymarket recovery both point the same direction · 3-month 54 → 55 and 6-month 60 → 61 — small pull-through of the same evidence · 1-year 82 and 3-year 92 held — nothing today changes the structural, multi-year read. Draft only — awaiting my stamp.
